

- 1) For people in the age range 60-80, there are very less transaction as compared to other age ranges.
- 2) People in the age range 60-70 don't have phone banking transactions.
- 3) People in the age range 70-80 don't have inter bank transactions.

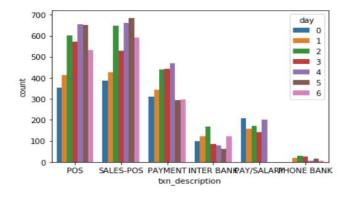

Observation(s):

- 1) For the transaction amount greater than 4000, there are very less transactions.
- 2) For the age range 20-50, many small amount transactions are made.
- 3) For the age range 60-80, no transactions are made above the amount of 2000.

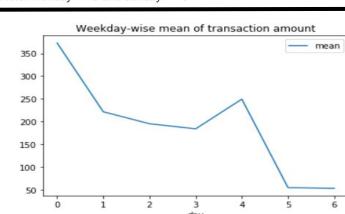

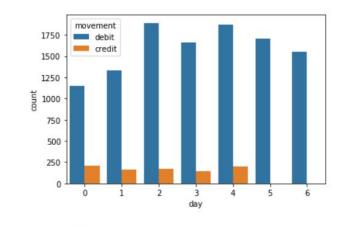

Observation(s):

- 1) Highest transactions are observed on friday and saturday for pos and sales-pos.
- 2) Highest transactions are observed on friday for payment.
- 3) Most salary credit transactions are done on monday and friday.

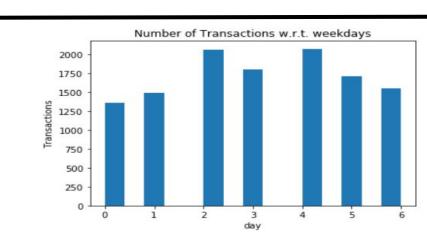

Note: monday == 0 and sunday == 6

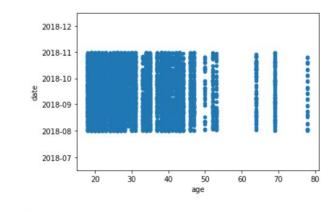

Observation(s):

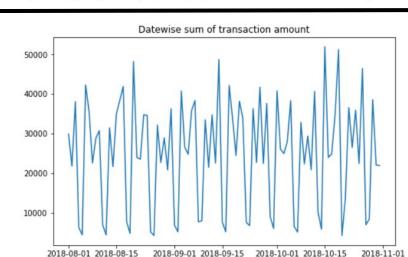

- 1) Credit transactions are done on days- monday, tuesday, wednesday, thursday, friday.
- 2) Most debit transactions are done onwednesday and friday.

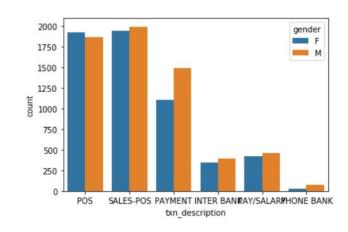

Observation(s):

- 1) In the age range 20-50, many people do transactions for the 3 months period.
- 2) In the age range 50-80, very less people do transactions for the 3 months period.

Observation(s):

1) Females do less phone and payment transactions as compared to males.

